

The children can now read and write!

Five months into the school year, our four-year-olds have learned to read and write simple words! Teacher Maribel does her magic again!

Development of positive attitudes toward education remains the primary thrust of the mission. Emphasis is on love and respect of self, family and neighbor.

Nutrition Aid Program

According to UNICEF, one in three children in the country are malnourished and this has caused widespread stunting of their growth. Together with the parents, we started a humble nutrition aid program that our limited resources could afford.

With the help of some donors from the US, gummy vitamins are now given daily to the children. Periodic distribution of bags of fortified powdered milk will follow.

Para po sa amin!

Parent volunteers escort the children to the library on an exciting book-borrowing Thursday!

Parents' participation continues to bear excellent fruit!

In exchange for her child's free tutorials, uniforms and school supplies, a parent gives four hours of volunteer service per week.

Some parents assist the teacher in the classroom, some help in the library, while some help keep the campus clean and green.

This arrangement has taught the parents the importance of community, and of their involvement in their children's education.

Special visitors

UCH friends Decon Fred and Gigi Jocson of Richlnd, Washington, Jesse and Lily Poblete of Saint Louis, Missouri, and Ed and Baby Jocson of Quezon City brought gifts and donations!
