

A very merry Christmas!

Living up to tradition, Teacher Maribel and the UCH parents prepared an awesome Christmas program, complete with a nativity scene reenactment, songs and poems.

Director Maribel's all-star cast in full attire.

Everyone had fun, including Ming the mascot.

President Ruben interviewed Arlene who had her fourth child enrolled at UCH. Both she and her husband also went to Child's Hope.

UCH sponsor Cora Garcia gave each child a gift bag. There were also toys from Jollibee. Aside from our burgers and juice, sponsor Christine Rosal also had taho for everyone!

The Christmas program is always a happy celebration with the children and their families!

Nutrition Aid continues

Besides the daily gummy multi-vitamin candy given in class, each family also received vitamin-reinforced powdered milk to take home.

Free books for UCH parents!

The parents are key partners in building the children's interest in education and their development of good life values. In exchange for each child's free pre-school, a parent is asked to give four hours of volunteer service per week, helping as teacher's assistants, librarians, or campus custodians – excellent learning experience for them, too.

To help the parents' development, free books and magazines have been made available to them starting January. The "Free Books" box was made by our carpenter-friend, Luis Ceblano.

Special visitors

Child's Hope sponsor Victoria Turingan of Paranaque City visited in December.

Tess Alejandrino Pulido, who heads Child's Hope in Washington, came with her husband Dr. BJ, her mom Lucy and her sister Christina. They brought books and toys for our library.

Child's Hope is a non-profit, non-stock corporation dedicated to the belief that every child deserves the opportunity to develop into the person God has created him or her to be.
