

Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year!

We ended 2019 with a special Christmas program last December 15th. The well-attended event ushered the start of the Christmas break. The holiday vacation was to last until January 5th.

Teacher Maribel Nebab together with the parents produced a beautiful, fun-filled presentation by the forty-six children. Trustee Jeannie del Rosario was emcee. There was never a dull moment!

After the program was party time, with Jollibee again donating spaghetti and chicken joy, to go with Christine Rosal's taho.

And then, a highlight of the occasion...gifts galore! The children received gifts from the CFC Household led by Rody and Lani Castañeda, from Cora Garcia, Amy Lim and Henry Lim, and from Jollibee Antipolo Capitol Branch. Robert and Liza Galang also gave 10-volume Tutubi Patrol books for each child! Wow! Masaya!

A Christmas forest sang and danced to the tune of The Happiest Christmas Tree, Ho-Ho-Ho!

A MacBook Pro and a big TV

A MacBook Pro was donated to UCH by Arete Capital's CEO Charlie Luchanco.

To complete the package, Robert and Liza Galang also gave us a large-screen TV! The children really enjoyed the educational video shows at the library!

Toothbrushes and toothpaste

"This is the way I brush my teeth..." We gave the children colorful toothbrushes and toothpaste, to promote dental health. Never too late for our 4 to 5 year olds.

Special visitors

Friends from the Couples for Christ came to celebrate Christmas with us. They brought gifts bags for all the children!

Other visitors who graced our Christmas program were Pat de la Santa of New York, Jenny Luciano and Ellen Pallin.

Thank you, all, for your support and encouragement. We have been asked the question, whose project is Child's Hope? Everyone we asked to help is willing to help. That makes Child's Hope everyone's project. Love you!
